

Lael Dozier

“Can I Be Your Friend”

File under – Pop / Dance / Urban R&B

PRESS RELEASE:

Singer/songwriter/producer Lael Dozier releases his new single “Can I Be Your Friend”, a catchy urban slanted track that also has hard hitting dance remixes from Ricky Ric. The forth-coming album “Water Under the Bridge” is scheduled for release in April 2010.

Born in Oakland, CA, then moving to New Britain, CT with his family, Lael became interested in music while singing in his church choirs in both locations. He began performing at the age of 7 at school and family functions and eventually ventured briefly into the fast world of hip hop where he continued to perform for various local college venues and radio shows.

As an adult Lael reached to his roots and relied on his vocal skills to further his career in music. This move brought him to the attention of several nightclubs, from Connecticut to Florida, where Lael was asked to appear for various showcases, open mic and solo performances.

Lael’s early influences are varied, from such Gospel greats as Andrea Crouch, Bebe Winans and Shirley Caesar as well as R&B legends Michael Jackson, Marvin Gaye, Stevie Wonder, Al B. Sure and Usher. On the production side, his most prominent idols include Teddy Riley, Timbaland, Dozier Holland Dozier, Baby Face, Prince, Dr. Dre and Kirk Franklin.

Lael’s education in music is rich in experience as is evidenced by the content and quality of the forth-coming album and this first single “Can I Be Your Friend”, with 5 slamming “Dance” club re-mixes sure to excite dance floors around the world. There’ll be plenty of choices for radio DJ’s to choose from.
